

Deliver The Package

Overview

Deliver the Package is a gang event where gangs fight over a package that must be delivered from point A to point B. There are two ways to earn credits: holding the package the longest, and being the gang that actually completes the delivery.

How to Play

When the event begins, the package spawns and must be carried to the delivery point. The package has live ESP, so every gang can see exactly where it is at all times, meaning you will have to fight to take it and fight to keep it.

- The gang that holds the package the longest gets 2 Gang Credits.
- The gang that actually delivers the package to point B gets 1 Gang Credit.
- Weapons are debuffed while carrying the package, so the carrier will need their gang to protect them.
- Carries receives SWEPS removal (Grappling hook and Magic Sword)
